SATURDAY SELECTS

Week of October 21, 2024

by Lauren Jones

A weekly Saturday recap to share with you our favorite links, discoveries, exhibitions, and more from the past seven days. This week: part two of In Common With's inaugural furniture collection, an Art Deco and Vienna Secession-inspired Brooklyn showhouse (above), and the unveiling of Aesop's new Parisian store.

Nature's role in design is on verdant display at Inside Out, Grounded in Nature, in Boerum Hill, Brooklyn. The show, curated by Kin & Company at Bergen, a new residential community by Frida Escobedo, featured indoor and outdoor furniture as well as art from 22 design studios. The 2024 show marked the fourth iteration of Inside Out, initially conceptualized to foster community and reverence of nature. (Photos by Jonathan Hokklo)
