Taller Frida Escobedo is designing a luxury condo building in Boerum Hill, Brooklyn.

Boerum Hill will soon welcome a seven-story residential project designed by Mexico City-based Taller Frida Escobedo with a low-stance, rhythmically pleated facade. The building will feature 105 condominium units designed by Workstead, with an emphasis on indoor-outdoor living and private outdoor gardens for 75 percent of the units. Collaborating with landscape designers DXA Studio and Patrick Cullina, the scheme prioritizes natural light and porosity while fostering community through amenities like the Glass House, communal spaces, and outdoor terraces.
